10.1 Termination Upon Default. The Landlord may terminate the Lease Agreement, in which event the Tenant will immediately surrender the Leased Premises to the Landlord, but if the Tenant fails to do so, the Landlord may enter and take possession of the Leased Premises and remove the Tenant and the Tenant's property therefrom.

10.2 Acceleration Upon Default. The Landlord may declare the entire amount of the Rent to become payable during the remainder of the Lease Term to be due immediately, in which event the Tenant agrees to pay payment of such Rent will not constitute a waiver of any default then existing or thereafter occurring hereunder.

10.3 Reletting Upon Default. The Landlord may enter and take possession of the Leased Premises as the agent of the Tenant without terminating the Lease Agreement, and the Landlord may relet the Leased Premises as the agent of the Tenant and receive the rent therefore, in which event the Tenant will pay to the Landlord, on demand, any deficiency that might arise by reason of such reletting; provided, however, that the Landlord will have no duty to relet the Leased Premises and the failure of the Landlord to relet the Leased Premises will not release or affect the Tenant's liability for Rent or for damages.

10.4 Option to Perform Upon Default. The Landlord may perform or cause to be performed the obligations of the Tenant under the Lease Agreement and may enter the Leased Premises to accomplish such purpose. The Tenant agrees to reimburse the Landlord on demand for any expense which the Landlord might incur in effecting compliance with the Lease Agreement on behalf of the Tenant.

11. Remedies. No action by the Landlord during the Lease Term will be deemed an acceptance of an attempted surrender of the Leased Premises and no agreement to accept a surrender of the Leased Premises will be valid unless made in writing and signed by the Landlord. No re-entry or taking possession of the Leased Premises by the Landlord will be construed as an election by the Landlord to terminate the Lease Agreement unless a written notice of termination is given to the Tenant. No provision of the Lease Agreement will be deemed to have been waived by the Landlord unless such waiver is in writing signed by the Landlord. No waiver by the Landlord of any default by the Tenant will be deemed to constitute a waiver of any other or future default hereunder. Forbearance by the Landlord to enforce one or more of the remedies herein provided will not be deemed to constitute a waiver of any default. The rights granted to the Landlord in the Lease Agreement are cumulative of every other right or remedy which the Landlord might otherwise have at law or in equity and the exercise of one or more rights or remedies will not prejudice the concurrent or subsequent exercise of other rights or remedies.

12. Landlord's Transfer. In the event the Landlord transfers the Landlord's interest in the Leased Premises, the Landlord will thereby be released from any further obligation under the Lease Agreement and the Tenant agrees to attorn and look solely to the transferee for the performance of such obligations arising after the date of the transfer. Should such transfer arise, Landlord shall provide written notice to Tenant within ten (10) days of said transfer. The agreement of the Tenant to attorn to the designee of the Landlord will survive any termination of the rights of the Landlord in the Medical Office Building or the Leased Premises and the Tenant agrees to execute and deliver to the designee of the Landlord from time to time within ten (10) days after written request therefore all instruments which might not be required by the Landlord to confirm such attornment.

13. Tenant Transfer. Where relocation of Tenant's office space as described in this Lease Agreement is necessary in order to allow for space planning for additional tenants, the Landlord may relocate Tenant to another space within the Medical Office Building. New locations shall be of comparable size and shall be subject to the terms and conditions agreed to in this Lease Agreement. Landlord will give Tenant ninety (90) days minimum notice prior to the proposed move date. Upon such notice to Tenant, Tenant may terminate in accordance with this Lease Agreement. Should Tenant agree to move office space pursuant to the appropriate notice from Landlord, all reasonable costs associated with such a move, including moving expense, stationery/business card printing, phone relocation shall be reimbursed to Tenant by Landlord. Tenant shall present Landlord an itemized expense report and receipts to Landlord for reimbursement. In the event Tenant declines to move, Tenant may give written notice of intent to terminate pursuant to this Lease Agreement.
